

How to Trigger Primary Motivation for Learning in Low Educated Adults Using ICT Tools

The project is meant to empower adult educators offering them and constructing with them knowledge and skills needed for working with low- educated and low-skilled adult learners wanting to trigger their primary motivation for learning.

To this end, different motivational strategies, methods and techniques will be surveyed, collected, and offered to adult educators, asking them to test and evaluate them in adult educational centres in their respective countries.

Main results:

A blended course for educators containing interactive resources
<http://www.learnersmot.eu/course>

Pack for Adult Educators consists of three parts: a resource library, a collection of good practices and an interactive handbook
<http://www.learnersmot.eu/pack-for-educators>

An interactive manual on existing motivation strategies
<http://www.learnersmot.eu/handbook>

A European Handbook for adult educators engaged in the field of low literacy
<http://www.learnersmot.eu/eu-report>

eurocreamerchant
consulenza direzionale d'impresa

UPI LJUDSKA UNIVERZA ŽALEC
Sola prijaznih ljudi

Univerza za trgovanje in razvojno oblikovanje v Ljubljani

Visit: www.learnersmot.eu

Erasmus+

This project has been funded with support from the European Commission. This communication reflects the views only of the author, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.
Project N°: 2017-1-ES01-KA204-038414