About DANET

Danube-Networkers for Europe e.V. (DANET) is a European not-for-profit association of educational organisations, dealing with and promoting education and scientific research as well as exchange and cooperation in the following areas: learning and education in later life, social participation, cooperation and dialogue of generations - in Europe and particularly in the Danube Region.

DANET is meant to give new impetus to the development and implementation of common European policies on social development, social participation, learning, education and intergenerational dialogue.

Moreover, DANET aims at supporting experts in these areas.
